

Overview

A Shakti Peeth is a holy site dedicated to Goddess Shakti (or Sati/Durga) where a part of the body of Sati fell to Earth after Lord Vishnu's Sudarshana Chakra cut through her corpse following her self-immolation at her father's yagna. "Peeth" means "seat" or "home," so a Shakti Peeth is a "seat of power" or a sacred spot for the supreme feminine energy in Hinduism. These sites are significant spiritual centers for pilgrimage and worship, where devotees seek blessings and connect with the divine feminine.
